Chinese Delegation Visiting Yugoslavia: Hsiang Chung-hua, a deputy chief of the Chinese army's general staff, arrived in Yugoslavia on Friday for a ten-day official visit at the head of a high-level military delegation. Hsiang is reciprocating the visit to Peking last fall by Colonel General Branislav Joksovic, a deputy chief of the Yugoslav general staff. Since President Tito publicly exposed the so-called cominformist plot last September, Sino-Yugoslav contacts have blossomed on almost every level. Such contacts could provide Belgrade with another source of military materiel, but there has been no evidence of such cooperation thus far.
